SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Maxwell Wozinski is the recipient of this year's Edward H. Lieder Student/Athlete Scholarship Award given by the Club. The NPSCC Board of Trustees chose Max from a pool of applicants based on his GPA, athletic experience, and volunteer work with senior citizens in town. Max also did his Eagle Scout project renovating the outdoor garden at the DeCorso Center, including planting trees and grass, and creating two planter boxes. He is heading to the University of Rochester to major in chemical engineering. Congratulations Max!

Ed Lieder was the first Athletic Director at NP High School. The football field was named after him. When he retired from the NP school system, the Borough of New Providence hired him to direct and coordinate activities for WWII veterans and other seniors at the 'new' New Providence Senior Center. In 1998, the New Providence Senior Citizens Club voted to honor a graduating high school senior from NPHS with a scholarship award in honor of their first Senior Citizens Coordinator.

THANK YOU NOTES

- Public Health Nurse Jennifer Aranda and all of the senior volunteers who helped to make the Senior Health Fair a success!
- Christine Napolitano for organizing the wonderful Anniversary Luncheon.

Patrizia comes from Italy, has taught Italian to all ages and levels, and is currently an Italian instructor at Seton Hall University. Please see her note below to all current and prospective students:

"Buongiorno. My name is Patrizia Gerace and I'm very excited to begin teaching your Italian class. I was born and raised in Italy and moved to the USA in 2000. Teaching Italian has been my passion for more than 20 years. I believe that learning a language should be fun and engaging, focusing more on practical usage rather than more academic approaches. I look forward to meeting you in our first session. A presto."

There will be NO Italian classes on Tuesday, June 6. Leo will teach his last class on June 13. Beginning on June 20, the Advanced class will meet every Tuesday at 12:00pm. The Beginner Italian class will meet every other Tuesday at 1:00pm beginning June 27. New students are welcome!
